Cubs in the Community

Team provides support in Chicago and beyond

The Chicago Cubs community efforts reflect an ongoing partnership between the Cubs and the people of Chicago. Our efforts include charitable donations, neighborhood protection activities and year-round community service involvement.

The Cubs support of Cubs Care, a fund of the McCormick Foundation, and other charities has resulted in grants totaling more than $14 million since 1991 - including more than $1 million in each of the last six years - to support programs for youth sports, children with special needs, victims of domestic violence and to help social service agencies in the Lakeview community.

Grants distributed in 2008 included more than $600,000 in funding for youth sports programs, such as Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI), a premier summer league baseball program involving approximately 300 mostly minority youths from disadvantaged community areas.

Fundraising events for 2009 include:

Race to Wrigley Saturday, April 25

The fourth annual 5K Race to Wrigley takes place Saturday, April 25, 2009. Participants will run through the streets of the Lakeview neighborhood and finish under the famed Wrigley Field marquee.

For more information or to register, visit cubs.com.

Tours of Wrigley Field

Each guided tour provides an insider's look at 94 years of history in this legendary ballpark. Tours include visits to places like the Cubs' clubhouse, press box, visitors' clubhouse, bleachers, dugouts, on-deck circle and mezzanine suites.

For the complete tour schedule, visit cubs.com.

Tour sizes are limited and do sell out. Tickets are $25 per person and can be purchased at cubs.com or over the phone by calling 1-800-THE CUBS. For more information, call the Wrigley Field Tours hotline at 773-404-CUBS.

Meet the Team, Have a Ball Wednesday, May 13 at 2:30 P.M.

This annual event provides the opportunity for fans to collect autographs from Cubs players and coaches in attendance, allowing fans to leave with a collectors' item - all while supporting a good cause.

Tickets are $300 each and the price includes an official Rawlings baseball, ball cube and ballpark snack. Each fan will have his or her name scrolled on the center field scoreboard during the event.

For more information or to purchase tickets, visit cubs.com.

Hey Dad, Wanna Have a Catch? Saturday, June 27 (rain date - Sunday, June 28) Six time slots: 10 A.M., 11 A.M., Noon, 1 P.M., 2 P.M., 3 P.M..

Have fun in the outfield grass at the Friendly Confines at the "Hey Dad, Wanna Have a Catch?" event.

Families and fans of all ages have the opportunity to spend 50 minutes playing catch in the outfield, running the bases or chatting in the dugouts of beautiful Wrigley Field. Participant tickets are $150 each and include field access, a commemorative t-shirt, souvenir photograph, official Rawlings baseball and lunch in the Friendly Confines Café.

Guest tickets are also available for $15 each and allow access to the stadium and lunch for guests and family members who wish to watch from the stands, but not participate on the field.

For more information or to purchase tickets, visit cubs.com.

The annual Race to Wrigley attracts thousands of local runners to the historic streets around the Friendly Confines.

Wives Food Drive Saturday, August 29

The Cubs wives join the players in reaching out to the Chicago community. Their seventh annual Food Drive will take place at Wrigley Field prior to the Cubs home game. Proceeds from the event benefit Cubs charities and the Lakeview Pantry. Since its inception in 2003, the event has helped raise more than 54,000 pounds of food for the Lakeview Pantry and more than $15,000 for charity.

Cubs Caravan January 13-14, 2010

Cubs' players, coaches, broadcasters and front office personnel embark on an annual two-day excursion visiting schools, neighborhoods and communities in Illinois and Northwest Indiana.

In 2009, the Cubs Caravan consisted of two tours of Chicago Cubs players, coaches, broadcasters and front office staff combining to visit six cities, five elementary schools, a Boys and Girls Club, Chicago's Northwestern Hospital and a charity luncheon benefiting Cubs Care. The tour also included a stop at the Peoria Chiefs' charity fan fest.

The Cubs Convention is a three-day baseball celebration each winter where fans get a chance to mingle with Chicago Cubs players, alumni, broadcasters, coaches and team officials.

The 2010 Cubs Convention enters its 25th year and includes autograph and photo sessions, question-and-answer seminars and the sale and display of Cubs memorabilia.

Players, coaches and broadcasters visit Northwestern Memorial Hospital during the 2009 Cubs Caravan.

Looking Ahead

The Chicago Cubs community efforts got off to a strong start in 2009 as the "Len & Bob Bash," a charity concert at the House of Blues hosted by Cubs announcers Len Kasper and Bob Brenly, and the annual Cubs Convention raised funds for Cubs charities.

In March, Cubs players and staff lend their time and cooking talents to Paz de Cristo, a food bank located minutes away from HoHoKam Park in Mesa, Ariz.

For more information on Cubs charitable activities and fundraisers, please call 773-404-CUBS.

Working in the Lakeview Community

The Cubs work hard to communicate with those who live and work in the communities around the ballpark. By participating in our community, talking and listening to our neighbors, actively addressing issues such as traffic, parking and clean streets and by contributing to parks, schools and community needs, the Cubs continue to help make Chicago a thriving city and a great home.

It's All About Fundamentals

Because reading is fundamental to education, the Cubs sponsor the Cubs Spotlight on Reading! program in schools across Illinois and Northwest Indiana. In collaboration with Chicago Public Schools and Comcast Spotlight, Cubs Spotlight on Reading! teaches children the joy and importance of reading through visits to classrooms by Cubs players and coaches. During the Cubs Caravan, players record videos reading children's books. Videos are available throughout the year on Comcast Spotlight.

Lending a Helping Hand

Thousands of institutions and organizations each year receive tickets or Cubs memorabilia as charitable contributions for fundraising auctions and raffles. Annual events such as Prostate Cancer Foundation Home Run Challenge and Major Leaguers Strike Out Breast Cancer shine a spotlight on diseases affecting thousands of Americans.

Youth and Special Needs Baseball

McCormick Foundation's Cubs Care grants support a number of organizations committed to bringing quality sports programming to the children of Chicago. Each year, more than 13,000 children and young adults participate in sports programs supported by Cubs Care grants.

Programs Cubs Care has funded include:

Rookie League — A partnership with the Chicago Park District, Rookie League is an introductory league for six to nine year olds. The league has grown to 96 locations with 521 teams across Chicago. Each year, more than 8,000 children from neighborhoods throughout Chicago can participate in the program free of charge.

Inner City Youth Baseball — Inner City Youth Baseball provides recreational activities for more than 260 kids ages nine to 12 who live in Chicago Housing Authority developments and scattered site housing throughout Chicago. The program is operated in partnership with the Chicago Police Department, Chicago Housing Authority and the Chicago Park District. It also helps to address the growing issue of the declining participation of African Americans in baseball by exposing African American youth (who comprise 97% of the program participants) to the game.

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI) — The Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program of the Union League Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago reaches approximately 300 mostly minority teens ages 13 to 18 living in some of the poorest communities in Chicago. Grants typically cover all program costs so the league can provide equipment, uniforms and instruction at no cost to the participants. The Cubs RBI program boasts three players chosen in the 2008 MLB first-year player draft and one selected in the 2007 MLB first-year player draft.

Special Recreation Programs

The Chicago Park District's Special Recreation programs are geared towards helping children and adults with special needs. These programs include Beep Baseball for the visually impaired, Buddy Baseball for the physically challenged, Deaf & Hard of Hearing softball for the hearing impaired and Alternative Athletic Conference (AAC) softball for those with learning/behavioral problems.

Wheelchair Cubs

The Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago (RIC) created the RIC Cubs wheelchair softball team to expand athletic opportunities for physically challenged adults. The RIC Cubs are tremendously talented athletes and have won the Wheelchair World Series in 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2008.

A Cubs Care grant helped create Illinois' first-ever public wheelchair baseball stadium in 2003.

Reaching Out to the Latino Community

The Cubs are committed to connecting and building a lasting partnership with the Latino community in Chicago. Some endeavors include Spanish-language publications, baseball programs and relationships with charitable organizations serving Latino communities throughout the area.

Little Cubs Field Humboldt Park

The Chicago Cubs have partnered with the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago, the Chicago Park District and the Parkways Foundation to construct Little Cubs Field in Humboldt Park. A groundbreaking ceremony was held August 20, 2008, with Cubs All-Stars Carlos Zambrano and Geovany Soto in attendance. Alderman Billy Ocasio, Chicago Park District Superintendent Tim Mitchell and local youth baseball players from Humboldt Park joined the duo at the event.

The design of Little Cubs Field highlights some of the well-known elements of Wrigley Field. The scoreboard will be reminiscent of the famed Wrigley Field marquee and seating will feature covered grandstands with a rooftop like the Friendly Confines.

The Cubs, the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago and Alderman Ocasio contributed the $2 million to make this dream a reality. The 2009 season marks the first for this world-class ballpark.

LosCubs.com

The Cubs launched a Spanish language Web site in April 2007, currently the most visited Spanish language site among MLB teams. Loscubs.com provides Spanish-speaking fans with up-to-date news, team information, game recaps and exclusive player profiles and stories, all in Spanish.

Reading is Fundamental

The Cubs Spotlight on Reading! program in schools across Illinois includes a Spanish-language component. During the season, Cubs players visit classrooms to teach the joy and importance of reading in Spanish as well as English.

The Cubs also partner with the Chicago Public Library to tape public service announcements in both English and Spanish to stress the importance of reading.

Equipment Drive

In May 2008, the Cubs conducted a baseball and softball equipment drive in conjunction with Sports Authority and the Baseball Tomorrow Fund. The collected items were given to the children's baseball leagues at Humboldt Park.

Cubs ace Carlos Zambrano read in Spanish for Cubs Spotlight On Reading.

CUBS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

In the midst of a sales process at the time of this book's printing, the Chicago Cubs have had seven owners since the franchise's inception 133 years ago in 1876 when William A. Hulbert began as the club's first owner. The Cubs have had only two owners in the last 88 years, including 60 years of family ownership starting in 1921 when William Wrigley, Jr. purchased the franchise. In 1932, Philip K. Wrigley took control upon his father's death. In 1977, William Wrigley took over the club following the passing of his father, Philip, before selling to the Tribune Company four years later in 1981. Below is a complete list of Chicago Cubs owners:

Year	Owner
1876	William A. Hulbert ... owned the Chicago White Stockings and became one of eight charter members of the National League
1882	Albert Spalding and John Walsh ... Spalding — the former player, sporting goods tycoon and team president — and Walsh took over after the death of William A. Hulbert

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team. In 2008, Ryan Dempster was recognized as the Cubs recipient for this award.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Craig Biggio, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are four types of waiver requests – Major League Waivers, Special Waivers, Outright Waivers and Unconditional Release Waivers.

Major League Waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for Major League assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special Waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright Waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional Release Waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

RECORD BREAKERS AT THE GATES

In 2008, the Chicago Cubs set a single-season attendance record by drawing 3,300,200 fans at Wrigley Field, eclipsing the previous record mark of 3,252,462 set in 2007.

In addition to setting a Wrigley Field record, the 3,300,200 is the largest single-season attendance mark for any franchise or venue in the history of the city of Chicago.

The Cubs reached three million fans on September 2, faster than any other season in franchise history, as that night's crowd of 39,846 vs. the Houston Astros brought the Cubs and Wrigley Field beyond the three million mark in the club's 74th home date of 2008, surpassing the previous record of 75 home dates to three million fans in 2007.

The Cubs have had three million fans in home attendance in each of the last five seasons starting in 2004 when the club reached the mark for the first time.

The Cubs are one of only five teams in Major League Baseball to reach three million fans in each of the last five seasons starting in 2004, joining the Dodgers, Yankees, Angels and Cardinals.

The last Cubs starter to win his first five decisions to start a campaign was Greg Maddux in 2006. Prior to that, Jaime Navarro was the last Cub to start a year 5-0 (in 1995).

The last Cubs starter to open the year with a six-plus game winning streak was Kenny Holtzman, who went 9-0 during the 1967 season. That was the best season start for a Cub since Jim McCormick won his first 16 decisions in 1886.

BEAR CUBS

The greatest number of players to make their major league debuts in one season for the Cubs is 20 – in 1902. The high number of youngsters that season was one of the primary reasons why the club was nicknamed the "Cubs." With the raid of National League players by American League teams, many N.L. clubs stocked their spring training rosters with young, unproven players. The Chicago Daily News, noting all the youngsters in the Chicago camp, used the nickname "Cubs" for the first time in its March 27, 1902, edition.

YOUNG AT HEART

The oldest player to play for the Cubs was Hoyt Wilhelm. Born in 1923, Wilhelm joined the Cubs in September 1970 – two months after his 47th birthday – and pitched in three games with the club.

The only players in their 40s to make Opening Day starts for the Cubs were first baseman Cap Anson (final season-opening start in 1895 at the age of 43), pitcher Dutch Leonard (40 in 1949) and third baseman Gary Gaetti (40 in 1999).

GOING THE DISTANCE

The last time Cubs pitchers went the distance in three consecutive contests took place during the 1976 campaign – when Rick Reuschel (September 18), Ray Burris (September 19) and Steve Renko (September 21) did the honors.

The last time the Cubs had three straight complete-game shutouts took place in May 1969. Ken Holtzman started the streak May 11 with an 8-0 victory over San Francisco. Fergie Jenkins then blanked San Diego 2-0 on May 12. Dick Selma finished the stretch with a three-hitter in a 19-0 victory over the Padres May 13.

IF AT FIRST ...

On June 29, 1937, Cubs first baseman Jimmy Collins set a National League record by not having any fielding chances in the Cubs' 11-9 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis. Left fielder Augie Galan and catcher Gabby Hartnett each had 8 of the Cubs' 27 putouts, followed by second baseman Billy Herman (4), shortstop Billy Jurges (3), center fielder Joe Marty (2), starting right fielder Frank Demaree (1) and substitute right fielder Phil Cavaretta (1). Herman had both Cubs assists in the game on force plays at second base.

The only other N.L. first baseman to accomplish that feat was the Cubs' Fred McGriff – on August 15, 2002, vs. Houston. Catchers Todd Hundley (14) and Joe Girardi (3) recorded 17 of the club's 27 putouts via the strikeout route. Shortstop Alex Gonzalez had the Cubs' only assist on a ninth-inning ground out.

TRIPLE PLAYS – LAST TIME IT HAPPENED

The Cubs have been involved in 76 triple plays since 1876, turning 40 and hitting into 36. The Cubs have hit into the last three triple plays they've been involved in (most recently May 14, 2000, at Montreal).

On May 10, 1997, in San Francisco, the Cubs turned their last triple play. The Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco in the fifth inning with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier hit a fly ball to short center field, with second base umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance (center fielder Brian McRae to third baseman Jose Hernandez to second baseman Ryne Sandberg).

The last triple play turned at Wrigley Field was by San Francisco on May 8, 1998 (first baseman Charlie Hayes to shortstop Rich Aurilia). The last time the Cubs turned a triple play at The Friendly Confines occurred June 2, 1983, vs. Pittsburgh – when Pirates pitcher Rick Rhoden hit into an around-the-horn triple killing (third baseman Ron Cey to second baseman Ryne Sandberg to first baseman Bill Buckner).

On May 30, 1927, shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the only unassisted triple play in Cubs history. In the fourth inning of the Cubs' game in Pittsburgh, Cooney caught Paul Waner's line drive, stepped on second base to retire Lloyd Waner, then tagged Clyde Barnhart off first.

PINCHED BY A PITCHER

On August 11, 2001, San Francisco's Livan Hernandez was the last pitcher to have a four-hit game against the Cubs – going 4-for-4 with a solo homer and three RBI.

On August 8, 2000, Los Angeles pitcher Darren Dreifort hit a pair of homers in a 7-5 victory over the Cubs at Dodger Stadium. Dreifort was just the fourth pitcher to record a multi-homer game against the Cubs, joining Cincinnati's Frank Foreman (July 4, 1895), the Boston Braves' Jim Tobin – who hit three homers (May 13, 1942) – and the New York Mets' Walt Terrell (August 6, 1983).

RUNS SCORED — AND RUNS ALLOWED

The Cubs mark for scoring in consecutive games is 127, set from June 15, 1958-May 13, 1959. The team record for scoring in consecutive contests in one season is 109, set in 1943 (May 23-September 18).

The longest streak for Cubs pitchers without hurling a shutout is 106 games, set in 1901 (May 18-September 20).

On June 29, 1897, the Cubs scored at least one run in every inning in a 36-7 victory at Louisville. That was the only time in club history that the team scored at least one run in every frame. The last time the Cubs surrendered at least one run in every inning took place May 5, 1999, vs. Colorado at Wrigley Field.

Since 1900, the Cubs have thrown three consecutive shutouts seven times, with the last occurrence taking place July 21-July 24, 1992 — when the Cubs won 1-0 and 3-0 at Cincinnati and 1-0 at Houston.

The last time the Cubs threw shutouts in both games of a doubleheader occurred July 11, 1965, vs. St. Louis at Wrigley Field (identical 6-0 scores).

The Cubs were held scoreless in a National League-record 48 consecutive innings June 15-June 21, 1968. The club was blanked in four straight games June 16-June 20.

The last time the Cubs gave up fewer than three runs during a three-game series took place May 26-28, 2008 vs. Los Angeles (N.L.) — when the Cubs swept the set by scores of 3-1, 3-1 and 2-1 (10).

The last time the Cubs gave up fewer than three runs during a Wrigley Field three-game set occurred May 26-28, 2008 vs. Los Angeles (N.L.) (3-1, 3-1, 2-1 (10)).

From July 5-July 7, 2001, the Cubs scored 38 runs over a three -game span — winning by scores of 13-4 at New York and 15-9 and 10-6 at Detroit. Over the three -game span, the Cubs recorded 50 hits — including 21 for extra bases (12 doubles, four triples, five homers).

In 1930, the Cubs established a team record by reaching the 10-runs plateau in five straight games June 1-June 6. During that stretch — the only time in club history that the team had a double-digit runs streak surpassing three games — the Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 16-4 on June 1 at Wrigley Field before going on a road trip. They swept the Boston Braves over a three -game span June 3-June 5 by scores of 15-2, 18-10 and 10-7, then went to Brooklyn and beat the Dodgers 13-0 on June 6.

During a 20-1 victory over Los Angeles (N.L.) May 5, 2001, the Cubs scored eight times during both the seventh and eighth innings. This was only the fifth time in major league history that a team plated at least eight runs in consecutive frames. The list:

April 30, 1887: St. Louis (N.L.) vs. Cleveland.....nine in fifth, eight in sixth
June 16, 1887: Philadelphia (N.L.) vs. Washingtoneight in seventh, eight in eighth

PINCH-HITTER DEFINITION

A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

KEEPING THE ROTATION TOGETHER

The Cubs utilized as few as seven starters in a campaign as recently as 2004, when the only pitchers to start for the club were Matt Clement, Greg Maddux, Sergio Mitre, Mark Prior, Glendon Rusch, Kerry Wood and Carlos Zambrano.

Since 1900, the club mark for fewest starters in a season is six — set in 1901. During the 19th century, the team utilized as few as two starters in four seasons, most recently during a 98-game 1883 campaign (Larry Corcoran 53 starts, Fred Goldsmith 45 starts).

WELCOME TO THE BROOMTOWN

The last time the Cubs swept four consecutive series of any length took place in 1970, when the club won 11 straight contests from April 14-April 27:

April 14-15-16 — 3-game sweep vs. Philadelphia

April 24-25-26 — 3-game sweep vs. Houston

April 17-18 — 2-game sweep vs. Montreal

April 27 — Won first game of a series in Pittsburgh

April 21-22 — 2-game sweep vs. St. Louis

In 1935, the Cubs had a club-record 21-game winning streak from September 4-September 27. That streak also marked the last time the Cubs swept four straight series of at least three games. The breakdown:

Sept. 4-5-6-7 — 4-game sweep vs. Philadelphia

Sept. 16-17-18-19 — 4-game sweep vs. N.Y. Giants

Sept. 9 (DH)-10-11 — 4-game sweep vs. Boston Braves

Sept. 21-22 — 2-game sweep vs. Pittsburgh

Sept. 12-13-14-15 — 4-game sweep vs. Brooklyn

Sept. 25-26-27 — Won first 3 games at St. Louis

2008 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

CUBS ADVANCE TO POSTSEASON: On September 20, the Cubs clinched their second-straight National League Central Division title when they defeated the Cardinals, 5-4, at Wrigley Field ... this marks the third time Chicago has won the N.L. Central Division (also 2003, 2007) ... Chicago has qualified for the postseason in consecutive campaigns for the first time since advancing to the World Series in 1906, 1907 and 1908.

- Ⓢ This was the Cubs 16th post-season appearance ... Chicago has qualified for post-season play three times in the last six seasons (2003, 2007 and 2008) for the first time since 1906, 1907 and 1908.
- Ⓢ Kerry Wood participated in his fourth postseason as a Cub (1998, 2003, 2007, 2008) ... the last Cub to appear in four postseasons was Stan Hack (1932, 1935, 1938 and 1945).

ABOUT THE RECORD: Chicago finished the 2008 regular season with a 97-64 record, the first time in the last 63 seasons when they finished 98-56-1 in 1945 ... Chicago reached 97 victories for just the ninth time in the 133-season history of the franchise starting in 1876.

- Ⓢ Chicago reached 57 victories prior to the All-Star break for the first time since 1969, when they totaled 61 wins prior to the break ... the 57 wins were 13 more than they had at 2007's All-Star break (44).

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: When the Cubs scored four or more runs in a game, the club was 81-14 ... when the team allowed four or fewer runs in a game, the club was 71-27.

- Ⓢ Chicago finished the season 24-22 in one-run games.
- Ⓢ Cubs pitchers recorded a 3.87 ERA ... that ranked third in the N.L. and fifth in baseball.
- Ⓢ The Cubs won 18 games in their final at-bat.

NO-HITTER AND MORE HISTORY: September 14 in Milwaukee, Carlos Zambrano threw the 13th nine-inning no-hitter in franchise history against the Astros in a 5-0 victory ... the game had been moved from Houston due to Hurricane Ike ... more details on Carlos' historic event may be found on page 85.

- Ⓢ The following day, the Cubs made more history as Ted Lilly, Jeff Samardzija, Carlos Marmol and Bob Howry combined to one-hit the Astros at Miller Park ... the one hit allowed was the fewest by any team in a two-game span in the history of baseball (thanks to Elias Sports Bureau).

MONTHLY MATTERS: Chicago began the season with five consecutive winning months, going 17-10 in April, 18-11 in May, 15-12 in June, 15-11 in July and 20-8 in August before going 12-12 in September ... Chicago had 15 or more victories in each of the first five months of the season for the first time since 1969.

- Ⓢ The Cubs 20-8 record in August marked the first time Chicago won 20 games in a month since going 20-10 in August of 1984 ... the team's .714 winning percentage this August was its first of .700 or better since September 2003 (19-8/.704).

HOME COOKING: The Cubs went 55-26 at Wrigley Field this season, the team's most home wins since 1935, when they had a club-record 56 victories at Wrigley (also in 1933) ... Chicago began the season 51-19 (.729) in its first 70 home games through August 29 ... the Cubs 55 wins at home and .679 winning percentage both ranked third in the majors.

- Ⓢ The Cubs won 14-consecutive home games from May 18-June 22, its longest winning streak at Wrigley Field since winning 14 straight from June 4-July 10, 1936.
- Ⓢ The Cubs went 7-0 in a seven-game homestand, May 26-June 1, vs. the Dodgers (3-0) and Rockies (4-0) ... it was their first unbeaten homestand of at least seven games since going 10-0 against the Phillies (3-0), Expos (2-0), Cardinals (2-0) and Astros (3-0) from April 14-26, 1970.

REGARDING THE ROAD: Chicago finished the season with a 42-38 record on the road, including an 21-8 mark in their final 29 road contests.

- Ⓢ Chicago won nine-straight road games from July 23-August 15 ... it marked the team's first nine-game road winning streak in 63 years when the 1945 squad had a 12-game road winning streak from July 1-August 3.
- Ⓢ The Cubs scored six or more runs in every one of their nine-game road winning streak ... Chicago previously had scored six or more in nine-straight road contests in a single season way back in 1880 (yes, 1880) during a nine-game stretch from June 5-19.

DIFFERENCE MAKERS: Chicago led the majors with a 184-plus run differential in 2008 ... Boston was the next closest team at plus-151 runs ... the closest N.L. club was Philadelphia who outscored their opponents by 119 runs.

THE LAST TWO...: The Cubs, with 85 wins in 2007 and 97 wins in 2008, have won 182 contests over the last two campaigns ... since the three-division N.L. alignment was established in 1994, that's the most wins by the Cubs in a two-season span (the previous best was 177 wins in 2003-2004).

- Ⓢ The last time Chicago won more than 182 contests in a two-year stretch was back in 1935-1936, when the team won 187 games.
- Ⓢ Lou Piniella's 182 wins in his first two seasons at helm of the Cubs is second-most by any Chicago manager in his first two full seasons - Frank Chance won 223 games in his first two full seasons as Cubs manager in 1906 and 1907 (Chance managed a partial season in 1905).

THIS IS ENTIRELY OFFENSIVE: The Cubs led the National League and were second in the majors with 855 runs scored in 2008, their first 800-run campaign since 1998, when the team scored 831 runs ... the Cubs now have turned in only eight seasons of 800 runs or more in the last 109 campaigns starting in 1900.

- Ⓢ The 855 runs scored on the team's most since plating 998 runs in 1930.
- Ⓢ Chicago finished the season with a .278 team batting average ... the last time the club ended a campaign with a better mark was 1937, when they hit .287.

ALL-STARS APLENTY: Chicago sent an N.L. record eight players to the All-Star Game in New York City, as well as manager Lou Piniella, who was a coach on Colorado's Clint Hurdle's staff.

- Ⓢ Catcher Geovany Soto became the first-ever rookie catcher to start a Mid-Summer Classic and the first Cubs backstop to receive the honor since Gabby Hartnett in 1937.
- Ⓢ Along with Soto, other Cubs to appear in the game were Kosuke Fukudome, who got the start in right field, Carlos Zambrano, Ryan Dempster, Carlos Marmol and Aramis Ramirez.
- Ⓢ Alfonso Soriano, elected to the game as a starter, and Kerry Wood were unable to play due to injury.

STRIKING PERFORMANCE: Cubs pitchers have set a major league record by leading the majors in strikeouts for the eighth consecutive season dating to 2001 (thanks to Elias Sports Bureau) ... Chicago's hurlers led the majors with 1,264 strikeouts while San Francisco was second with 1,240.

- Ⓢ Chicago entered 2008 tied with the Dodgers, who led the majors in strikeouts from its pitchers seven consecutive seasons from 1957-1963.

SERIES SPEAK: Chicago was 30-16-6 in series play, including an 20-4-2 mark at home and a 10-12-4 record on the road.

- Ⓢ Chicago won nine consecutive series from July 24-August 27, a feat the club hadn't accomplished in over 100 years ... it was the first time the Cubs had won nine consecutive series (of two or more games) since a 10-series streak April 11-May 23, 1907.
- Ⓢ The Cubs were unbeaten in 11 consecutive series (9-0-2) from July 24-August 31.

CLOSE CALLS ABOUND: The Cubs went 37-38 in games decided by two or fewer runs, including a 24-22 mark in one-run contests ... overall, 75 of Chicago's 161 games were decided by two or fewer runs.

YOU CAN CALL IT A COMEBACK: Chicago finished the season with 44 come-from-behind victories, including four straight wins from May 27-30 in which the club had trailed entering the seventh inning or later.

- Ⓢ The 44 come-from-behind wins ranked fourth in the majors behind the Yankees (49), Tigers (46) and Rays (45).
- Ⓢ The Cubs erased eight-run deficits of 8-0 and 9-1 to defeat the Rockies, 10-9, at Wrigley Field May 29 ... they had previously wiped out an eight-run deficit to win was June 22, 1999 at Colorado (trailed 9-1, won 13-12).

POWER HUNGRY: The Cubs featured five players with 20 or more home runs - Alfonso Soriano (29), Aramis Ramirez (27), Geovany Soto (23), Mark DeRosa (21) and Derrek Lee (20) - and four players with 80 or more RBI - Ramirez (111), DeRosa (87), Soto (86) and Lee (90) ... please note that although Jim Edmonds had 20 homers, only 19 were as a Cub (one with the Padres).

- Ⓢ The Cubs had at least five players with 20 homers for just the third time in franchise history: 2008, 2004 and 1958 ... in 2004, Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez, Sammy Sosa, Derrek Lee and Corey Patterson reached the mark ... in 1958, Ernie Banks, Walt Moryn, Lee Walls, Bobby Thompson and Dale Long turned the trick.
- Ⓢ The 2008 season marked just the second in franchise history (also 2004) in which the club had five players with 20 or more homers and four players with 80 or more RBI.

FULLY LOADED: The Cubs had at least one plate appearance with the bases loaded in 16 consecutive games from April 19-May 5 ... it was the longest such streak by Chicago since at least 1956 ... according to STATS, Inc., the Cubs matched the longest streak in the majors since 1974, done previously by only Lou Piniella's 2002 Seattle Mariners.

- Ⓢ On the season, Chicago batted .318 (49-for-154) with seven grand slams, 20 walks and 161 RBI with the bases loaded.

TAKING THE LEAD: Chicago held a lead in 25 consecutive games from May 9-June 3 ... the team had previously held a lead in 25-straight games way back in 1935, when they had a 28-game run from July 6-31.

WALK IN THE PARK: The team drew 636 walks this season, narrowly missing the club record of 650 in 1975 ... the Cubs averaged 3.95 walks per game as Kosuke Fukudome led the squad with 81 free passes.

- Ⓢ The Cubs drew their 396th walk of the season July 23, surpassing their 2006 season total of 395 free passes.

CARLOS AT THE BAT: Carlos Zambrano hit safely in 13 consecutive starts from June 2-August 26, marking the longest streak by a pitcher since Wilbur Wood had a 15-start hitting streak in 1924.

- Ⓢ Carlos also recorded at least one RBI in eight straight starts from July 19-August 29, becoming the first pitcher in major league history to do so.

CHARITABLE CUBS: Chicago Cubs Charities and the McCormick Foundation, through its fund Cubs Care, together granted more than $1 million to Chicago non-profit organizations in 2008.

- Ⓢ The 2008 grants include more than $600,000 in funding for youth sports programs, including Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) Baseball, a premier summer league baseball program involving approximately 300 mostly minority youths from disadvantaged community areas.
- Ⓢ All-Stars Carlos Zambrano and Geovany Soto joined children from Chicago's Humboldt Park community in a groundbreaking ceremony for construction of Little Cubs Field - a $2 million youth baseball facility. Little Cubs Field's design highlights some of the well-known elements of Wrigley Field. The scoreboard will be reminiscent of the famed Wrigley Field marquee. The park is scheduled to open in Spring 2009.
- Ⓢ Cubs fundraising events and donations raised more than $1 million in 2008. Fundraising events included: Cubs Convention, Wrigley Field Tours, MLB online auctions, "Meet the Team, Have a Ball" and "Hey Dad, Wanna Have a Catch?"
- Ⓢ The Chicago Cubs community efforts reflect an on-going partnership between the Cubs and the people of Chicago. These efforts include charitable donations, neighborhood protection activities and year-round community service involvement.
- Ⓢ Chicago Cubs charitable efforts are committed to harnessing the passion of Cubs fans to improve the lives of children and families across Chicago. Cubs Care focuses its giving in the city of Chicago and makes monetary grants to organizations aiding children with special needs, victims of domestic violence and youth sports programs. Cubs Care also focuses on a wide variety of charitable and social service agencies located in the immediate neighborhood of Wrigley Field. This includes Lakeview, Uptown and Lincoln Park. The Cubs also support programs and charities chosen by Chicago Cubs players and coaches and their wives and by Cubs' employees.

A GRAND TIME WAS HAD BY ALL

The Cubs have hit 286 grand slams in franchise history, including seven in 2008 and four apiece in 2005-2007.

The Cubs record for grand slams in a season is nine, recorded in 1929 by Hack Wilson (2), Rogers Hornsby (2), Charlie Grimm (2), Riggs Stephenson, Norman McMillan and Kiki Cuyler. McMillan's roundtripper was of the inside-the-park variety.

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than two grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit three grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

On August 16, 1890, Chicago batters Tom Burns and Malachi Kittredge both connected for fifth-inning grand slams off Pittsburgh's Bill Phillips — for the franchise's only multiple grand slam inning.

STEALS OF HOME AND INSIDE-THE-PARK HOMERS

On August 22, 2008, vs. Washington, Alfonso Soriano stole home as part of a double steal (with Derrek Lee) ... it was the Cubs' first steal of home since Angel Pagan stole home on July 29, 2006, vs. St. Louis.

The Cubs' steal of home records:

Career Leader: 22 – Frank Schulte

Single-Season: 6 – Johnny Evers (1907)

Game: 2 – Joe Tinker (6/28/1910 vs. Cincinnati)

The only Cub to steal second, third and home in the same inning was Wilbur Good – on April 18, 1915, vs. Brooklyn (6th inning).

On May 19, 2008, at Houston, Geovany Soto circled the bases in the fourth inning for an inside-the-park homer off Brian Moehler.

The Cubs' inside-the-park homer records:

Career Leader (Since 1900): 18 – Frank Schulte

Single-Season: 6 – Tommy Leach (1913), Cy Williams (1915)

Game: 2 – Hugh Duffy (8/9/1889 vs. Boston Braves), Topsy Hartsel (8/5/1901 @ Cincinnati)

The only time in Cubs history that the club had back-to-back inside-the-park homers took place June 23, 1946, when Eddie Waitkus and Marv Rickert accomplished the feat against the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds.

The last Cub to have an inside-the-park homer as his first M.L. homer was Carmen Mauro – on October 3, 1948, at St. Louis (off Murry Dickson).

PITCH OUTS

The Cubs set a team mark in 1999 by utilizing 25 different pitchers.

The club mark for most left-handed pitchers to see mound action in a season is 10 — a figure reached in both 1999 and 2000. Prior to the 1999 campaign, the team record of eight had stood since 1966.

The team mark for most strikeouts by a reliever is 11, set by Dave Hillman during a 7.2-inning relief stint May 28, 1959, against Los Angeles.

The last Cubs position player to take the mound for the Cubs was third baseman Gary Gaetti, who saw relief action July 3, 1999, at Philadelphia.

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, the only Cub to record a save in his major league debut was Todd Wellemeyer (May 15, 2003, at Milwaukee).

The last Cubs rookie to hurl back-to-back complete games was Rich Hill in 2006 (September 16 vs. Cincinnati, September 22 at Cincinnati).

Hill finished with two complete games in 2006, making him the first Cubs rookie with more than one complete game in a season since Frank Castillo tossed four in 1991.

The best career start recordwise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910. The worst start belongs to Jim Brewer, who began his Cubs career 0-8 in 1961.

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 win against Philadelphia. He gave up 13 hits and one walk while striking out eight.

Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the win, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the 19th inning.

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.20 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and; (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and; (3) he qualifies under the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or; (b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or; (c) he pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

HAMMERIN' HURLERS

Since 1900, there have been two campaigns in which five
Cubs pitchers homered in the same year — in 1937 and 1941. The "hammerin' hurlers":

1937: Roy Parmelee 2, Clay Bryant 1, Curt Davis 1,
Bill Lee 1, Charlie Root 1.
1941: Claude Passeau 3, Bill Lee 2, Paul Erickson 1,
Vern Olsen 1, Charlie Root 1.

Since 1900, the most home runs hit by Cub pitchers in a season is nine — in 1961 (Don Cardwell 3, Bob Anderson 2, Jack Curtis 2, Glen Hobbie 2).

Carlos Zambrano (16) has hit more homers than any other pitcher in Cubs history — ahead of Fergie Jenkins (13),
Claude Passeau (12) and Charlie Root (11).
Six other hurlers went deep at least six times.

The Cubs played 5,717 contests between Milt Pappas' near-perfect game in 1972 and Carlos Zambrano's no-hitter in 2008. Over that stretch, Cubs pitchers threw 21 one-hitters, with the last one taking place September 29, 2007, against the Reds in Cincinnati — when Rich Hill (6.0 IP), Sean Marshall (2.0 IP) and Scott Eyre (1.0 IP) combined on a one-hitter at Great American Ball Park.

Entering 2009, the Cubs have gone a National League record 43 full seasons since they were last no-hit, surpassing the mark set by the St. Louis Cardinals from 1920 to 1959. According to the Sporting News Complete Baseball Record Book, the American League record is 44 years, accomplished by the New York Yankees from 1959 to 2002.

Entering this campaign, the Cubs have played 6,854 games since they were no-hit by Los Angeles' Sandy Koufax in 1965 (a span of just over 43 years). Since Koufax's perfect game, the Cubs have had 20 one-hitters tossed against them, with the last one occurring August 31, 2005 — when Los Angeles' Derek Lowe accomplished the feat at Wrigley Field (Jerry Hairston hit an infield single to lead-off the game). The last pitcher to take a no-hitter into the 9th inning against the Cubs was Florida's Alex Fernandez — on April 10, 1997, at Wrigley Field (broken up by a Dave Hansen single).

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Highlights In Cubs History

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Albert Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... Spalding also had the first hit in franchise history, while center fielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the second inning.

© The first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati.

© The creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until 1882 ... with the assistance of manager Albert Spalding, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.

© Of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1880: The North Siders won 21-straight games, June 2-July 8, including one tie (June 4).

1883: Chicago set major league records when it scored 18 runs and collected 18 hits in September 6's seventh frame ... the Cubs went on to beat Detroit 26-6.

1903: In October, the Cubs and White Sox held the first of the semi-annual "City Series" ... at points from 1903-1942, the two teams met following the regular season for a crosstown set as long as neither team made the Fall Classic.

© In the inaugural year, the Chicago teams ended with seven wins apiece ... what would have been the deciding game was cancelled due to weather.

1906: The Chicago club went 116-36 in setting major league records for wins in a season and winning percentage (.763).

© The Cubs and White Sox met in the first and only all-Chicago Fall Classic ... it also marked the first time two teams from the same city met in the World Series ... the Cubs fell to the White Sox, four games to two.

1907: "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team ... the Cubs then went on to win their first World Series, defeating Detroit in five games.

1908: The Cubs were World Series champions for the second straight year, defeating Detroit four games to one.

1911: Frank "Wildfire" Schulte became the first player in the majors to hit at least 20 doubles, 20 triples and 20 homers in a single season.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park (now known as Wrigley Field).

1921: William Wrigley Jr. became the Cubs' majority owner.

© Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate led by Charles Weeghman purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to have controlling interest.

© After Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.

© The sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

1924: The first Cubs game was broadcast on the radio ... Hal Totten transmitted the April 23 home opener from the Wrigley Field roof ... Chicago routed the Cardinals 12-1 in the contest.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR

Ernie Banks was selected to the National League All-Star team 14 times, the highest total for a Cubs player. Ryne Sandberg ranks second in club history with 10 All-Star appearances (nine starts).

The only Cub to earn Most Valuable Player honors was Bill Madlock, who had a game-winning two-run bases-loaded ninth-inning single off the White Sox's Rich Gossage in the 1975 contest. Madlock shared MVP honors with the New York Mets' Jon Matlack.

Seven Cubs batters have hit All-Star home runs, most recently Alfonso Soriano in the 2007 contest off Seattle's J.J. Putz. The others: Augie Galan (1936 off Detroit's Schoolboy Rowe), Hank Sauer (1952 off Cleveland's Bob Lemon), Ernie Banks (1960 off Boston's Bill Monbouquette), George Altman (1961 off Boston's Mike Fomiele), Billy Williams (1964 off Kansas City's John Wyatt) and Andre Dawson (1991 off Boston's Roger Clemens).

Cubs pitchers have earned five All-Star wins — Bob Rush (1952), Larry Jackson (1963), Bruce Sutter (1978 and 1979) and Lee Smith (1987). Cubs relievers have picked up four saves (Lon Warneke in 1936, Don Elston in 1959, Sutter in 1980 and Randy Myers in 1995). Cubs pitchers have suffered four All-Star losses — Bill Lee (1939), Claude Passeau (1941 and 1946) and Johnny Schmitz (1948).

Passeau is the only Cubs pitcher to start in the All-Star Game, taking the loss in the 1946 Midsummer Classic at Boston's Fenway Park.

The youngest Cubs player selected to the N.L. All-Star team was Greg Maddux, who was 22 years old at the 1988 Midsummer Classic in Cincinnati. As he did not participate in that contest, the nod as the youngest Cub to play in the All-Star Game goes to 23-year-old Ron Santo in 1963. The youngest Cubs pitcher to appear in an All-Star Game was 23-year-old Carlos Zambrano (2004).

The oldest Cub to play in an All-Star Game was 38-year-old Ernie Banks, who made his 13th and final All-Star appearance in the 1969 Classic in Washington, DC.

Three Cubs managers have guided the N.L. All-Star team — Charlie Grimm (1936 and 1946), Gabby Hartnett (1939) and Dusty Baker (2003).

Three All-Star Games have been played at Wrigley Field — in 1947, in 1962 and in 1990. The American League won all three games by scores of 2-1, 9-4 and 2-0.

The Cubs have played regular-season contests in 111 different venues — going 60-50-1 in their "first appearances" at those facilities.

PHILLING UP THE SCOREBOARD

On August 25, 1922, the Cubs topped Philadelphia 26-23 at Cubs Park in the highest-scoring game in major league history. The teams combined for 51 hits, 23 walks and 25 men left on base. A 14-run second inning followed by a 14-run outburst in the fourth helped the Cubs build a 25-6 lead. Philadelphia fought back and had the bases full when the last out was recorded in the ninth inning.

On May 17, 1979, Dave Kingman hit three homers and drove in six runs, but Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt answered with two homers — including the game-winner in the 10th — to give the Phillies a 23-22 victory in baseball's highest-scoring game since the 1922 affair. The Cubs had trailed 21-9, but rallied and tied the score in the eighth.

POST-SEASON HISTORY

1906 World Series: White Sox Defeated Cubs 4-2

The 1906 Cubs set a modern record by winning 116 games against only 36 losses ... facing the "Hitless Wonders" White Sox in the first one-city World Series, the Cubs were heavily favored to win their first Fall Classic.

© Played in snowy October weather, the first four games were dominated by pitching ... Nick Altrock and Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown dueled in the opener with both pitchers allowing only four hits, but the White Sox scratched out a 2-1 win ... Ed Reulbach evened the Series with a one-hitter the following day ... the clubs then traded shutouts, leaving the Series tied after four games.

© The Cubs were held to a .196 batting average ... the White Sox didn't fare much better, hitting only .198.

POST-SEASON PREEMIES

The youngest Cub to participate in post-season play was Phil Cavarretta, who was just 19 years old when he made his World Series debut in the 1935 Fall Classic against Detroit.

In 1998, Kerry Wood became the youngest Cubs pitcher to see action during the postseason. He was just 21 when he started Game Three of the Division Series against Atlanta.

1907 World Series: Cubs Defeated Tigers 4-0 (1 Tie)

Trailing 3-1 with two out in the ninth inning of the Series opener, the Cubs rallied for two runs to send the game into extra innings ... after 12 innings, the game was called due to darkness ... 1998 NLDS: Braves Defeated Cubs 3-0

Atlanta pitching proved to be too much for the Cubs, who needed a Wild Card tie-breaker contest against San Francisco to qualify for the postseason.

- © The Cubs were held to just four runs, 17 hits and a .181 average ... Braves pitchers recorded a 1.29 ERA.
- © Cubs pitchers limited Atlanta's offense to just a .228 average ... Cubs starters gave up only four earned runs in 20.0 innings.
- © Two days before the start of the Division Series – on September 28 at Wrigley Field – the Cubs earned a spot in the playoffs as the National League's Wild Card team after beating San Francisco 5-3 ... Steve Trachsel took a no-hitter into the sixth inning. Gary Gaetti belted a two-run homer, pinch-hitter Matt Mieske singled in two runs and Rod Beck picked up the save as the Cubs advanced to the playoffs.

2003 NLDS: Cubs Defeated Braves 3-2

For the first time since winning the 1908 World Series, the Cubs were victorious in a post-season series ... as such, the Cubs qualified for their first trip to the National League Championship Series since 1989.

- © The affair was only the third "final and decisive" post-season contest in Cubs history ... the club had dropped Game Seven of the 1945 World Series to Detroit and Game Five of the 1984 NLCS to San Diego.
- © With two victories, Kerry Wood became the first Cub to pick up a pair of wins in a post-season series since Hank Borowy in the 1945 World Series ... he fanned 18 batters in the two starts, surpassing the club-record 17 recorded by Hippo Vaughn in the 1918 World Series ... in the series-opening 4-2 victory, he had two hits – and drove in the game-winning run with a two-run double in the Cubs four-run sixth inning.
- © In Game Three (a 3-1 Cubs win), Mark Prior went the distance – allowing two hits while fanning seven ... he was the first Cubs pitcher to throw a complete game in the postseason since Claude Passeau accomplished the feat in Game Three of the 1945 World Series ... in the process, he also became the second hurler to throw a two-hitter in a Division Series affair, joining Nolan Ryan (October 6, 1981).

2003 NLCS: Marlins Defeated Cubs 4-3

Five outs – that's all that stood between the Cubs 3-0 lead in Game Six and their first trip to the Fall Classic since 1945 ... before two of those outs could be recorded, Florida stunned the Cubs with an eight-run eighth-inning rally.

- © By the time the fateful eighth was over, the Marlins had sent 12 batters to the plate ... the eight runs were the most in an NLCS inning since St. Louis plated nine in the second inning October 13, 1985, against Los Angeles.
- © There was another day for the Cubs, however ... in Game Seven, they found themselves down 3-0 early before rallying to tie the score in the bottom of the second – including a two-run shot by Kerry Wood ... his roundtripper was just the fourth by a pitcher in NLCS history – and the first since the Cubs Rick Sutcliffe went deep in Game One of the 1984 NLCS vs. San Diego ... the Cubs then went ahead 5-3 in the third inning on Moises Alou's two-run homer ... from that point, though, the Cubs were held to just one hit – a Troy O'Leary pinch homer in the seventh off Josh Beckett – as the Marlins pushed across six runs from the fifth through seventh innings.
- © In the process, the Marlins became the fourth team in League Championship Series history to overcome a three-games-to-one deficit in advancing to the World Series.

2007 NLDS: Diamondbacks Defeated Cubs 3-0

In the team's first post-season appearance since 2003, the Cubs were swept by the Arizona Diamondbacks, three-games-to-none, in the National League Division Series ... Chicago batted just .194 (19-for-98) in the series with six runs scored ... Chicago batted just .087 (2-for-23) with runners in scoring position while Geovany Soto hit the club's lone home run - a two-run blast in Game Two off Arizona's Doug Davis.

- ⑤ Soto's long ball made him just the second Cubs rookie to ever homer in a post-season contest ... previously, Cubs rookie Frank Demaree homered off the Yankees Johnny Allen on October 2, 1932, in the fourth game of the 1932 World Series at Wrigley Field..
- ⑥ The Cubs dropped Game One, 4-1, as Carlos Zambrano went up against Arizona's Brandon Webb ... the game was tied 1-1 before the Diamondbacks scored two runs off Carlos Marmol in the seventh.
- ⑦ Chicago enjoyed its only lead of the series when Soto's two-run homer in the second inning of Game Two at Chase Field gave the Cubs an early 2-0 ... Arizona rebounded for four runs in the bottom half of the inning and would hold the lead for the remainder of the game.
- ⑧ In Game Three, the Diamondbacks touched Rich Hill for three runs in 3.0 innings of work as Chicago went 0-for-9 with runners in scoring position.

2008 NLDS: Dodgers Defeated Cubs 3-0

After leading the National League with 97 wins, the Cubs were swept out of the National League Division Series, three-games-to-none, for the second straight season ... Chicago starters compiled a 5.87 ERA (10 ER/15.1 IP) ... Ryan Dempster issued a career-high seven free passes in Game One's 7-2 setback.

- ⑤ Derrek Lee extended his post-season hitting streak to six games with a 3-for-4 Game Three performance ... hit at a .545 clip (6-for-11) with three doubles and two runs scored on the series.
- ⑥ Mark DeRosa gave the Cubs their only lead of the series with a one-out, two-run homer in the second inning of Game One ... the Dodgers responded with seven unanswered runs, highlighted by James Loney's fifth-inning grand slam.
- ⑦ Carlos Zambrano struggled in Game Two, surrendering seven runs (three earned) in the Dodgers' 10-3 victory ... Los Angeles posted five runs in the second frame and never looked back ... the Cubs committed four errors in the game, one shy of matching their post-season record (5).
- ⑧ A two-run double by Loney in the first inning proved to be all the offense the Dodgers needed in Game Three ... pinch-hitter Daryle Ward singled in Lee for the Cubs lone run in the 3-1 loss.

WRIGLEY FIELD INFORMATION

History of Wrigley Field

Wrigley Field, which was built in 1914, is playing host to Major League baseball for the 96th season in 2009 – and to the Cubs for the 94th year. Wrigley Field is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

Ⓢ The Friendly Confiner has been the location of such historic moments as:

- Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
- Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin'" September 28, 1938, off Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
- The great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
- Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
- Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.
- Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout affair in 1998.
- Sammy Sosa's 60th home runs in 1998, 1999 and 2001.
- Greg Maddux's 3,000th career strikeout July 26, 2005.
- Tom Glavine's 300th career victory August 5, 2007.
- The 1947, 1962 and 1990 All-Star Games.

Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.

- Ⓢ Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry in the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.
- Ⓢ The cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- Ⓢ The first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson – a two-run shot in the second inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.
- Ⓢ When the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corner of Clark and Addison streets.
- Ⓢ The first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.
- Ⓢ The park became known as Cubs Park in 1920 after the Wrigley family purchased the team from Weeghman ... it was named Wrigley Field in 1926 in honor of William Wrigley Jr., the club's owner.

The Wrigley Field bleachers and scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

- Ⓢ The score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" – to signify hit and error – are eyelets.
- Ⓢ No batted ball has ever hit the center field scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed – a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.
- Ⓢ One of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

- Ⓢ Ernie Banks' uniform number (14) is imprinted on the flag which flies from the left field foul pole, directly above Ron Santo's No. 10 ... Ryne Sandberg's No. 23 and Billy Williams' No. 26 fly from the right field foul pole.

Wrigley Field added lights in 1988.

- Ⓢ The first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, but was rained out in the fourth inning.
- Ⓢ The first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.
- Ⓢ In 2009, Wrigley Field will be celebrating its 22nd year of playing host to baseball under the lights.
 - The Cubs entered the season having played 393 home night contests (going 208-185).

Wrigley Field has been the site of numerous construction projects since 1981.

- Ⓢ New office space was created and old offices refurbished in the administrative area behind home plate in 1981-1982, while the ticket office was built directly behind home plate in 1983.
- Ⓢ During the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitors' clubhouse was renovated in 1990.
- Ⓢ In 1989, private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, formerly occupied by the press box and broadcast booths ... a press box and broadcast booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... other improvements included a food court in the upper deck.
 - Following renovations in 1994 and 1995, there are now 61 private boxes.
- Ⓢ An elevator was added to the third base concourse in 1996.
- Ⓢ Following the 2005 season, the Cubs expanded the bleachers, adding a restaurant in the batter's eye and a window to Sheffield Avenue in right field.
- Ⓢ In the winter of 2007, Wrigley underwent a major field renovation project to remove the field's crown, install an intricate drainage system underneath and create a new playing surface.
- Ⓢ The beautification of the Wrigley Field campus also included the installation of personalized pavers beginning near the corner of Sheffield and Addison, running down Addison Street towards Clark Street and the Wrigley Field marquee.

SPRING INFORMATION

Mesa — HoHoKam Park

Spring Training 2009 will mark the 31st consecutive spring training that the Cubs have spent in Mesa and the 13th at the HoHoKam Park/Fitch Park facilities ... in 2008, the club was 15-15-2 during the Cactus League campaign.

© HoHoKam Park is operated by the city of Mesa with assistance from the HoHoKams, a local service organization.

© Mesa is the second-largest city in the Phoenix metropolitan area and the third-largest city in Arizona ... Mesa is located southeast of Phoenix and Scottsdale.

- With a population of more than 460,000, Mesa ranks as one of the fastest growing cities in the United States (among those with populations of at least 200,000) and the 38th-largest city in the country — bigger than Atlanta and Miami.

- Mesa was founded in January 1878 and was incorporated in July 1883 ... the area of the city is 128 square miles.

© The telephone number for the Mesa Convention and Visitors Bureau is 1-800-283-MESA.

The Cubs began play at the new HoHoKam Park in 1997.

© New HoHoKam Park has a seating capacity of 13,100 ... there are 8,036 fixed seats; 2,096 seats in the outfield bleachers and 2,538 seats in the outfield lawn ... in addition, there are 80 skybox seats, 120 seats in the third base patio section and 230 seats in the Budweiser tent located in right field.

© The stadium dimensions are:

340 feet down the left field line
350 feet down the right field line
410 feet to straight-away center field
390 feet to the power alleys

© The batter's eye in center field is 80 feet wide by 40 feet high ... the outfield fence is 15 feet, four inches high.

© New HoHoKam Park also has a practice field, a practice infield, four batting tunnels, bi-level bullpens in right-center-field and a 13,955-square foot clubhouse ... the facility, which includes paved and grass parking for 3,000 cars, was built on a 48.45-acre site.

In 2005, the Cubs established a HoHoKam Park/Cactus League single-season attendance record ... the club drew 193,993 fans for its 15 home dates, an average of 12,933 per date.
